As a Fine Lines member, you will enjoy reading creative writing by talented authors, and we hope you are aware of the part we play, encouraging young writers of all ages to improve their craft and develop their ideas. Your support provides perks for you, and it also offers hope for our students, teachers, and fellow writers.

“Good writing is clear thinking made visible.” –Bill Wheeler

This year, Fine Lines needs your help more than ever. Please consider making a tax-deductible gift to our 501 (c) 3, non-profit educational organization. Even a gift of $50 makes a difference. All gifts support the specific Fine Lines efforts shown below.

- Your support publishes four quarterly journals, which are 300 pages each and are full of creative thinking by writers of all abilities, educational levels, and interests.
- Your support allows writers without means to attend our creative writing summer camp. Last year, many students of all ages needed scholarships to participate.
- Your support keeps readers informed about how important good writing is to our world.
- Your support promotes the aspirations of our teachers, editors, and volunteers, who have engaged our writers and readers since 1992.
- Your support improves our website that reaches writers around the world.

Every tax-deductible gift to Fine Lines makes a difference for generations to come. The young writers of all ages, who find their words on our pages and have their ideas read by our members in all 50 states and 85 other countries, thank you for helping them.

Write on!
